

METALLION COAT STANDS

Our high-quality New-Zealand-made coat stands add flair and functionality to any commercial reception or office space where people gather and work. They also look great in the home.

All our coat stands are made with mild-steel frame and a suitably weighted base, and can be finished in any powder coated colour. The different styles are accentuated by the variety of peg options available. Customisation of height, style and peg configuration on request.
